PROFILE SUMMARY

Motivated and detail-oriented Digital Marketing fresher with hands-on, project-based experience across Search Engine Optimization (SEO), Google Ads, Google Analytics 4 (GA4), Social Media Marketing, Content Marketing, Email Marketing, Keyword Research, Competitor Analysis, and Lead Generation.

Completed a structured Digital Marketing training program and independently built portfolio-grade deliverables — full digital audits, competitor research, content strategy, and growth roadmaps — for simulated and live client scenarios. Brings a distinctive cross-functional edge from a Computer Science Engineering background: comfortable with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, basic React, WordPress, and Git/GitHub, meaning campaigns aren't just planned but can also be technically built, optimized, and tracked end-to-end. Currently seeking an entry-level Digital Marketing role where this blend of strategic and technical skill can drive measurable business growth.
